COVID Isolation web links:

Pray-as-you-go have released a daily retreat, Pray-as-you-stay, a series of audio reflections on being at home and self-isolating. Explore the rest of the site to find reflections on the daily readings, rosary reflections, and a series of prayer tools addressing loneliness, grief, and anxiety.

Busted Halo has a great collection of essays, movie suggestions, homilies and their InstaLent photo challenge.

Prayers in time of 'flu and illness' :- from the national Liturgy Office.

'Making it a Retreat' for those self-isolating. A lovely, almost monastic, daily structure of prayer and work to make self-isolation easier:

Christ, Covid, Community: An amazingly international facebook group.

Lovely resources from the Jesuits for all who are self-isolating, including a special examen.

Resources from the God Who Speaks campaign for dwelling in Scripture through these difficult times.

Online talks from Cafod looking at a range of topics from mental health, how COVID-19 will affect development, and also a lovely prayer and chat time each week.

Resources from Bishop Barron and Word on Fire

From our own diocese many links can be found HERE.

School- including access to the recent OFSTED report

Archdiocese of Birmingham

Whistleblowing Policy
